Rooted in the tales of community and tradition, The Horse & Plow pays homage to its rich history as a village gathering place since 1918. Originally known as the Tap Room, it was housed in the same location and featured pool tables, bowling alleys, card tables, and a bar selling candy, cigars, and soft drinks. It evolved into a place to toast, tell stories, and celebrate—with friends, family, and strangers who became friends. Just as it is today.
